

National Milk Pty Ltd.

Statement of Circumstances

Season 2023/2024

At National Milk, we recognise that every farm and supplier is different: as such, we invite you to contact us about milk supply terms and conditions which suit your individual needs.

As at 1 June 2023, National Milk would enter into National Milk's standard form non-exclusive milk supply agreement if the following circumstances exist:

1. The farmer has a current Dairy Food Safety Licence;
2. The farmer complies with all mandatory legal requirements in relation to milk production and supply, including the environment and animal welfare;
3. The farmer wishes to supply National Milk on a non-exclusive basis;
4. The farmer is able to demonstrate to National Milk's reasonable satisfaction that it has a good record of supplying quality milk over the past 3 years;
5. The farmer meets National Milk's supplier acceptance checks;
6. The farmer is able to demonstrate that they can comply with the obligations set out in National Milk's milk supply agreement;
7. The proposed milk supply is spread reasonably evenly across the Supply Period;
8. It is on or before the 15th of July 2023;
9. At any time, National Milk may decline to enter into any new milk supply agreements if it has secured sufficient commitments to its customers.
